MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION:

The club has three types of memberships: 1) Full Member, 2) Senior Member, 3) Collegiate Member. All members have a key and access to all Outdoor Range facilities at any time with a few exceptions. Individuals who have been a Full Member for more than 5 years and are age 65 or older become Senior Members and their dues are reduced. Annual fees for Full Members and Senior Members may be reduced by participation in work days or income producing activities. All new applicants approved by the Club's Executive Committee become Candidate Members. They will be eligible to upgrade their status to Full Membership after three months by participating in one work day or income producing activity, attending two meetings, be approved by the Full Members in attendance at a Club meeting, and applying the additional dues and assessments required for Full Membership. Work days or income producing activities are scheduled for every month, and meetings are held monthly.
